

Novaclin Fresh AX

Anionic drycleaning detergent with innovative FRESH-System and anti-lint formula as well as marked antistatic and retexturing properties for use in perchloroethylene

Novaclin Fresh AX is a combination of anionic and non-ionic surfactants for use in all perchloroethylene drycleaning machines. The innovative FRESH-System absorbs unpleasant odors remaining in the garments and provides them with an appealing fragrance.

Selected emulsifiers detach lint from the drum housing and ventilation ducts and prevent lint build-up. Even aged lint clusters will be detached without problem after permanent use of Novaclin Fresh AX.

Novel type antistatic additives reliably prevent the build-up of electrostatic charges and the formation of lint on the textiles during drying.

Garments treated with Novaclin Fresh AX receive a pleasant, voluminous handle, leaving them almost crease-free. Colored textiles receive clearly defined colors and the graying risk to light-colored garments is absolutely minimized.

Application:

Novaclin Fresh AX is perfectly suited for use in all dosing systems. Add to the freshly distilled solvent.

Basic concentration: 0.5 - 1 oz of Novaclin Fresh AX
